

Lessons from Ferguson: A conversation on race

Thursday, Dec. 11, 2014 – 7 p.m.
City Council Chambers

The events in Ferguson highlights issues relating to race and racism in America. What can we learn from these events? What does this mean for race and diversity in Moscow?

Photo: Associated Press

Panelists:

Rev. Elizabeth Stevens, Unitarian
Universalist Church of the Palouse
Chief David Duke, Moscow Police
Chief

Steve Smith, Faculty, UI School of Journalism and Mass Media

Alejandra "Vivi" Gonzales, Director of Diversity, ASUI

The Moscow Human Rights Commission
www.ci.moscow.id.us—208.883.7000